Customer Reviews

Don't expect to tear pages easily out of this monster. It's bound tight, and the spine is detached so it lays flat well. Looks like it will hold together well. But if you're looking for paper that you can remove and put in a looseleaf... fuggedaboutit. For what it is, it's fine. Just be aware of what it is: a book.

This book is excellent for the guitarist who has tablatures lying around all the place and needs to jot down a ton more riffs. The pages are double-sided so technically there are more than 1,000 pages of blank tabs. Only drawbacks are that the bars are a bit small to fit 8 on one page, so you have to write small and slowly so you can read it clearly; and the binding does NOT fold flat has others supposedly claim it does, but for the price and the amount of blank tab it's great! I'm always coming up with new riffs and learning artists' music so having all my notes in one book is perfect for band practice. I highly recommend it for the price.

good and so many pages.. i like it and also recommend this book for everyone who is teaching or learning

Wow is this book huge. It will keep me busy for years. It is only tab lines, no music lines or chord boxes, but for a guitarist all you need is tabs. Great for writing songs for guitar.
