Customer Reviews

All the reviews said it was a demolition job on David Cameron Michael Ashcroft but I did not read it that way and found it ultimately a sympathetic profile. The biography portrayed him as a decent human being and family man, not something one would say about every politician. The pig's head episode admittedly was a bit of mischief but can surely have done no serious damage.

Good insights into cameron's attitudes and modus operandi. An ordinary and very privileged 'born to rule' man. No work in real world ... out of touch arrogant tory.
